

FAITH, LOVE, HOPE

Grand Prix, Festival du Film de Strasbourg

A film about young people in the inner city.

During the term of one year we were accompanying and shooting a group of young People in Leipzig.

When we begin in December 1992, Dirk is in prison for an attack on a hostel for foreigners.

Jeanine, his girlfriend, waits for him.

Andre is a skinhead, he works at a Christmas market and makes music.

“Papa“ - unemployed, first belonged to the left -wing, changed to the right-wing and came back to the left-wing again.

What do these people do in the course of the year, who and where are they at end of the year -in December 1993?

Violence and aggression, hopes and dreams and fears.

The agony of a generation. Scenes from Germany.
